

Vehicle System Simulation

Tools used world-wide in Cummins to simulate the real world and test for interactions in a highly repeatable environment.

Provide technology for any combination of hardware and model in the simulation.

Model vehicle interactions to test performance and reliability of the system.